Information EDIT

Thailand Office of Agricultural Affairs, Los Angeles (OAALA) is an entity established under the Ministry of Agriculture and Cooperatives of Thailand. We work with all governments and industry to assure that Thai food and agricultural products exported to the United States meet the U.S. standards. In collaboration with the National Bureau of Agricultural Commodity and Food Standards, we provide an opportunity for farmers, producers, small and medium companies from Thailand to present their finest quality and wholesome Thai food and agricultural products. If you have any questions or would like to connect with the company representatives, we are here to help. You can schedule a meeting or send us a message and we will get in touch with you.
